

NOTICE

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR UNREPRESENTED PARTIES AND POTENTIAL PARTIES

By filing pro se, you have elected to represent yourself and act as your own attorney. YOU ARE SOLELY RESPONSIBLE FOR COMPLYING WITH THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA AND FULFILLING YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES AS A LITIGANT. IF YOU FAIL TO DO SO, FINAL RESOLUTION OF YOUR CASE WILL BE DELAYED AND THE COURT MAY NOT BE ABLE TO GRANT YOU RELIEF. MISTAKES MAY RESULT IN ADDITIONAL FEES. Courthouse or Judge's Office personnel CANNOT assist you. Courthouse staff cannot explain the meaning of a specific rule, interpret case law, explain the result of taking or not taking an action in a case, answer whether a claim has been properly filed, or provide advice on the best procedure to accomplish a particular objective. IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS REGARDING YOUR CASE, YOU SHOULD CONSULT AN ATTORNEY.

There are a number of resources for parties who decide to file pro se. However, Court personnel cannot distribute, instruct, or assist you in obtaining or filling out any document. The following FREE resources may assist you in obtaining forms for the documents required in a divorce action and some other matters frequently filed pro se.

- The Courthouse Law Library - Located on the 2nd floor of this building
- Southern Judicial Circuit - <http://www.southernjudicialcircuit.com/Forms.htm>
- Gwinnett County Superior Court - <http://www.gwinnettcourts.com/#home/>
- Fulton County Superior Court - <https://www.fultoncourt.org/family/family-forms.php>
- The Georgia Child Support Commission - <http://csc.georgiacourts.gov/>
- LegalAid-GA – <http://www.legalaid-ga.org>

The forms provided by these and other sources may become outdated as the law changes and may not be appropriate for your situation. IT IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY TO DETERMINE WHICH FORM IS APPROPRIATE FOR YOUR SITUATION AND ENSURE THAT THE COMPLETED DOCUMENT COMPLIES WITH GEORGIA LAW.

USE ANY FORMS AT YOUR OWN RISK. A PARTICULAR FORM MAY OR MAY NOT BE APPROPRIATE IN YOUR PARTICULAR CASE. ANY DESIRED OUTCOME FROM THE USE OF ANY FORMS CANNOT BE PREDICTED OR GUARANTEED.
