CAMIE W THOMAS, CLERK

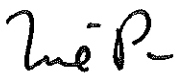

STANDING ORDER REGARDING PROBATIONS MANAGEMENT ACT DISPOSITIONS

WHEREAS O.C.G.A §42-8-150 et seq., known as the Probation Management Act, provides that certain alleged violations of probation may be addressed administratively without judicial disposition; and

WHEREAS the Court has determined that there are good reasons to document as a matter of public record the allegations and outcomes of matters addressed under the provisions of the Probation Management Act (as is done with probation violation allegations that are addressed judicially);

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the probation department file a document showing the alleged violations of probation and the final disposition in each such action with the Clerk of Court as part of the record in the original Superior Court criminal action. The allegations and disposition shall be attached as an exhibit to a face sheet styled with the Superior Court case number of the original action. The face sheet shall bear the signature of a probation officer or hearing officer involved with the case, and the signature shall signify that the exhibits attached thereto are an accurate reflection of the action taken by the probation department. The cover page shall essentially conform to the sample attached hereby as Exhibit A.

SO ORDERED this 27th day of May, 2025.
